Before we continue with the next bill, Senator Gerald Matzke has as his guests this morning...they were under the north balcony: Max Kroger, who is Superintendent of South Platte Schools of Big Springs and his son Ryan Kroger. Would you please stand and be recognized and welcomed by your Legislature. LB 79.

CLERK: LB 79 by Senator Schimek. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 9, referred to the Business and Labor Committee, advanced to General File. I have no amendments to the bill.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schimek, to open on LB 79.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. In rising to ask your support of this bill this morning, I just have one comment to make. I sure do miss those Bill Books, because I don't have anything to set my notes on or lean against when I'm standing up here at the microphone. They did
